Fill Ziploc freezer bags with however much zucchini your favorite bread recipe calls for. I filled my bags with about two cups of zucchini, twice as much as my zucchini bread calls for, so that I can make a double batch of bread each time around. Squeeze as much air as possible out of the bags to prevent freezer burn, and also to make the bags easier to store.

She's amazing. Her name is Rubi and I love her so, so much. She is bright orange and so happy looking, and she has a leather interior, so the dog fur is so much more manageable, and it's so freaking easy to take her top off, which I realize sounds really sexist and terrible now that I'm personifying my car, but we all know what I mean, so let's not freak out here.
