The first time I ever learned about the concept of a cover letter, I distinctly remember how it was explained to me: "It's like your resume, but longer." The reason that moment sticks out to me so much? It's completely wrong! Yes, your cover letter should include some of the key skills, traits, and experience highlighted in your resume. But copying and pasting from there into your cover ...

JEFF'S TIP: Follow up with an email that has your resignation letter attached. Though a paper letter provides the super-sauce you want to be remembered for, an email provides a paper trail, so to speak. You want the date you submitted your notice and, consequently, the date you plan to stop coming into work to be clear as day.
